

Application for event at a location managed by the National Property Board (SFV)

The following information is needed by the National Property Board (SFV) to be able to decide whether photography of filming in the desired environment is suitable.

Read mote about our work with Temporary lease of our properties at sfv.se

1. Location of interest

2. Type of event

Public event; concert, exhibition

Private events; corporate events, weddings

Gathering in public area

Other:

3. Requested date and time for using the location

Please state the time period requested, including time of preparation etc.

4. Briefly describe the content and purpose of the event

Is the event open to the public, commercial or socially beneficial?

5. Number of expected participants/invitees?

6. Company details

Name of arranging company and short description of the company's operations

VAT number:

Invoicing address:

Reference: e-mail: phone:

7. Company contact; location manager on site for the duration of the lease

(if not same as above)

Name: e-mail: phone:

8. Which company, organization, private person has ordered the event?

9. In what way are other activities on site expected to be affected?

Describe the need and purpose, affected roads, parking lots, availability for tenants etc.

SFV may refuse applications where there is a risk that the activity or the result thereof does not live up to the state's values, disrupt existing tenants, their activities or that there is a risk of permanent damage to properties, cultural or natural environments.

We often need to ask for more information about the intended activity to process your application in detail, we will contact you if and when we need more information.

Note: As lessee you are responsible for the correct permits to be obtained, such as, permit regarding the use of public space which is issued by the local Police.

We handle your personal data for the sole purpose of processing the application for temporary lease and in accordance with the Data Protection Ordinance. Here you can read about how the National Property Board handles your personal data.